28 mai 2012 Le Kenyan devient la cible des extrémistes Comme je n'ai pas trop le temps en ce moment de m'occuper du site, je vous joins ci-dessous la liste des dernières attaques effectuées au Kenya. Les recommandations du ministère des affaires étrangères sont à prendre malheureusement en considération si vous devez vous rendre au Kenya.

OTC Bus station blast 24 Oct 2011 One person is killed and 13 others are injured in a grenade attack at the OTC bus terminus on Racecourse Road, Nairobi. Elgiva Bwire Oliacha alias Mohamed Seif, was arrested and jailed for life for the attack. Hours later, after the OTC attack, another grenade was hurled into Mwaura's Bar, off Mfangano Street in the city centre, injuring 14. Garissa attack 24 Nov 2011 Three people are killed and scores wounded in twin grenade attacks in the border town of Garissa. The attacks at congested places in the town occurred at about 8pm, within hours of similar attacks targeted at security forces in Liboi and Mandera where a soldier was killed in a landmine blast. Two people were killed when a grenade was hurled at Holiday Inn where people were watching news. The third person died on a congested street known as Ngamia Road near a church. Twenty-seven people were wounded in both explosions, 12 of them seriously, police said.
